India Foundation for the Arts invites

Applications from Teachers of Government Schools in Karnataka
Under its Arts Education programme

Deadline: July 31, 2022

India Foundation for the Arts (IFA) seeks to implement arts projects facilitated by teachers from government school in Karnataka, for their schools.

Kali Kalisu is an effort to make ‘learning’ a continuous and joyous process in schools, with the application of different art forms in curriculum based teaching pedagogies. It is an aspiration to nurture a student-centered learning process with the integration of curriculum based learning with creative approaches, that could build a strong relationship with the world outside a classroom and the students lived experiences, through local stories, music, theatre, painting, folk and other local art forms.

IFA is requesting for project proposals that hope to form a solid foundation for art-integrated teaching pedagogies and encourage curiosity and creativity of students. Kali Kalisu will also adhere to the objectives of NEP 2020.

Scope of the Project:

The implemented projects could do any of the following:
• Bring multiple stakeholders such as parents, students, teachers, school administration and art practitioners together for an artistic project.

• Explore learning environments enriched by regional/local art forms and practices in the classroom.

• Conceptualise and put in place student-centered programmes such as an arts cell within the student community which will meet regularly to experience and explore various art forms (theatre, visual arts, film, literature, photography, music etc.).

• Examine possibilities with the arts to sensitise and engage the school community to think about local realities such as social justice and environmental issues.

• Attempt to explore sustainable learning pedagogies of arts education in schools which can be delivered online due to the COVID restrictions.

Other long-term or short-term projects that engage with arts education in innovative and creative ways will also be considered.
